SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. There are indications that 'beso's program, presumably in accordance with instructions from the Politburo in Moscow, included the following instructions:

To take advantage of the precarious situation in the Indonesian Republic and to arouse revolutionary Communist elements for the purpose of transforming the masses into active forces.

To popularize "practical Communism" to such an extent that in three months at least 10 million of the 70 million population will turn Communist.

To offer free political and military training to youths who will be taught how to wage guerilla warfare and to terrorize the area so that the people will turn Communist - the purpose of this being to paralyze the efforts of the "imperialists" to pacify the territory.

To supply arms and ammunition by airborne units to the several Communist formations on the "battle fronts"

To create Communist cells, especially in strategically important cities such as Batavia, Bogor, Tjiandjoer, Krawang, Tjikampek, Soerabakarta, Bandoeng, Tasikmalaya, Garoet, Semarang, Soerabaya and Malang; to carry out subversive activities on the pretext of carrying out the "scorched earth policy"; to set up "gossip circles" to demoralize the "imperialists" through verbal propaganda which cannot be prosecuted because of lack of evidence.

To arouse discontent among the commandants of the irregular fighting forces so that they will refuse to surrender their arms to Hatta's regime.

To influence the rank and file of the Tentara Nasional Indonesia (TNI) and the Angkatan Udara Republik Indonesia (AURI) "so that they will fight for our cause against both Soekarno and Hatta (who will then be 'liquidated'), and the Dutch."

To agitate at the outbreak of any incident according to instructions from Moscow's Politburo; to arouse discrimination among the Indonesians, Chinese, Arabs, Dutch, and other Europeans.

To bring 20 military and air force experts, all Russians, from Bangkok via Boskit Tingi to Jogjakarta, and to set up a military academy and an academy of political science at Solo, where these experts will work as instructors to create the necessary schools for cadets and officers for the future army of the Soviet Republic of Indonesia.

To create an army corps of five divisions in Java, three divisions in Sumatra, an independent one in Borneo, and a division for East Indonesia.

To create an air force of eight squadrons, for which Soviet Russia, after signing a secret treaty for recognition of the Republic of Indonesia and the signing of a friendship treaty, will supply Indonesia with the necessary machines and material.

2. Moeso conferred with D.N. Aidit, Baharoeidin, Fadikoen, Soetopo Wonoboyo, Harjono, R.A. Asmaoen, M.H. Loekman, Laut Siregar, Mr. Trimoeerti, Maroeto Daroesman, Dr. Setiadjiit and other Communists some time before holding the recent mass meeting. The conference was made possible through the efforts of Triscoene, secretary of D.N. Aidit.
3. Harjono assured Moeso that the two million members of Sarekat Oemoem Boeroeh Seloeroeh Indonesia (SOBSI) would support him. Soetopo Wonoboyo guaranteed that his hundred thousand members of the Barisan Tani in and around Jogjakarta would back Moeso. Fadikoen confirmed his verbal agreements that his editorials in the Bintang Merah would all be written to bring about Communist conversion. Baharoeidin stated that he required Sardjono to help him educate cadets with textbooks in Indonesian Malay, translated from Russian by Alimin. Asmaoen stated that he assumed full responsibility for free secret mailing of documents between Jogjakarta and Batavia. Loekman said that those who do not join the Partai Komunis Indonesia are not real revolutionaries and deserve to be liquidated. It has been decided that the Gaboengan Serikat Boeroe Revolutioner Indonesia of Solo should expand its membership to absorb the Moerba followers of Solo. Tony Wen is required to import as many automatic weapons and as much ammunition as possible from Malaya. STADUN Giok Tjhan, former "menteri negara" in the cabinet of Amir Sjarifoedin, is no longer considered useful. Another local-born Chinese Communist will take his place. At least ten million Indonesian adults are required for the materialization of Moeso's plan, which must be made enforceable instantly.
